

BARE SUGAR LOBBY AT SENATE INQUIRY

Investigators Examine Former Governor of Hawaii, and Find Interests at Work.

(Continued from First Page.)

Sugar Producers' Association, and has offices in the Colorado building. That this association is prepared to spend money lavishly to obtain its ends, and, in fact, is doing so, was brought out in the testimony of Mr. Carter. While he was unable to give definite figures as to expenditures, he stated that the committee by asserting that the Hawaiian interests alone would account for the sugar business of the Hawaiian Islands by so doing.

Denies Big Expenditure.

Governor Carter said no such sum as this had been spent. But he estimated as "less than $100,000" the amount that the Hawaiian people had paid out.

According to the testimony of the former chief executive of the islands, none of this money had been spent corruptly. It had gone largely into the preparation and circulation of a great many pamphlets, and the like. The association, it was made plain, had not only entered on a great publicity campaign but intended to keep up the propaganda.

Governor Carter was sharply cross-examined by Senators Walsh, Reed and Overman, the Democratic members of the committee. Frequent sharp clashes occurred. The Democratic Senators apparently felt they had struck the real thing in the way of a lobby and they intended to air all the facts. Governor Carter made a clever and able witness but occasionally under the grilling he showed his resentment.

Wilson Was Justified.

The Democratic members of the committee, after the morning session, indicated their belief that the charges of President Wilson as to a powerful lobby here were amply justified by the Carter testimony. On the other hand, some of the testimony was of a sort to give comfort to the Republicans. Governor Carter told the committee the Williams subcommittee of the Finance Committee, composed of Senators Williams, Gore, and Reed, had been "amused" at the plea of the Hawaiian delegation, and that Senator Williams remarked the Hawaiian plea was two years too late, as the reformers had begun two years ago fighting for free sugar.

He also said the President had refused to have an audience with the Hawaiian delegation. One member of the subcommittee of the Finance Committee, was quoted as saying the Hawaiian delegation "make its argument after the tariff bill was passed."

Governor Carter said he had vainly sought public hearings before the subcommittee to present the case of the Hawaiian sugar interest. He declared this bill would be ruinous to the islands, and presented a crisis in the history of Hawaii.

Thornton Is Nearby. Senator Thornton, of Louisiana, testified near while Governor Carter testified. Congressman Hardwick, who was head of the House Sugar Committee, also sat near.

Governor Carter named S. M. Ballou, R. D. Mead, Elmer Paxton, W. G. Smith, A. D. Baldwin, W. C. Cook, J. Homberg and himself as the representatives of the Hawaiian interests. He admitted the large funds needed were raised by assessment on the stockholders of the Hawaiian companies. He said he himself was here on "a philanthropic mission" and explained by that that he got no remuneration and had been sent by the Honolulu chamber of commerce, various business interests and as the result of a mass meeting of people interested in sugar and business in Hawaii.

Tells of Companies. In the beginning of his testimony Governor Carter told of the various companies concerned in the Hawaiian sugar business, and said the Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar Company, in which Claus Spreckels formerly had an interest, was foremost. After relating the story of the activity at the headquarters here in the way of getting out publicity matter, talking to Senators, and the like, the witness was cross-examined by Senator Walsh.

"Of course, it takes money to do this," said Senator Walsh.

"Who handles the funds?"

"Mr. R. E. Mead who is here ready to testify."

He declared that if the total of $500,000 were paid out it would be considered not too much to save the $12,000,000 invested in the Hawaiian sugar business.

He said the money raised from the Hawaiian interests was by assessment.

Facilities Exclusive For Women

Every facility that will assure convenience and careful attention to women in transacting their banking affairs is provided by the Union Trust Company.

This bank pays 2% interest on checking and 3% on savings accounts. A separate room and special ladies' teller are exclusively for the benefit of women depositors.

EDWARD J. STELLWAGEN, Pres.

UNION TRUST CO.
CAPITAL & SURPLUS $2,300,000.00

CATHOLIC CHAPLAINS WANT CLERICAL GARB

Army and Navy Men Prefer Habilliments of Faith to the Regulation Uniforms.

As a result of the convention of the Catholic Chaplain Corps, which began today at the Apostolic Mission House, at the Catholic University, petitions will be addressed to the authorities that chaplains be allowed to wear clerical garb instead of uniforms.

The question of proportionate representation of clergy in the army and navy will not be taken up directly by the convention, but probably will be informally discussed.

Feeling is strong among the members of the Catholic Chaplain Corps that the church of which they are priests has not its proper number of army and navy chaplains with respect to the number of men in the services who are of the Roman Catholic faith.

The question, however, has been laid before Secretary Garrison and Secretary Daniels by the Rev. Lewis O'Hern, spiritual director of the corps and representative of Cardinal Gibbons in this branch of the church's work.

O'Hern Is Chair.

The Rev. M. O'Hern presided at the opening session of the convention today, the first convention of the kind ever held. His calling to order of the body followed the celebration of mass by the Rev. T. J. Shahan, rector of the Catholic University of America, spiritual director of the corps and representative of Cardinal Gibbons in this branch of the church's work.

Commencement at G. W. U. and Catholic University Will End the Academic Year.

Commencement exercises of two of the largest institutions of learning in Washington will be held tomorrow. The academic year will be thus concluded at the Catholic University of America and George Washington University.

The George Washington University commencement will be held at Continental Memorial Hall at 8 p. m., and all departments of the university will present candidates for degrees. The graduate department will present one candidate for the highest earned academic honor there is, that of doctor of philosophy. The president of the university, Rear Admiral Stockton, will preside at the exercises, which include music by the Marine Band. Dean Charles Noble Gregory, of the law school, and the other deans all in academic robes, will present their graduates in turn. No formal address will be made, but two graduates will give orations.

At the Catholic University the commencement will be held shortly before noon. An academic procession will precede the exercises, which will be presided over by the rector, the Rev. T. J. Shahan. Following the conferring of degrees an address will be given by Congressman James M. Graham, of Springfield, Ill.

Candidates for degrees will be presented by the following deans: The Very Rev. P. J. Healy, School of Theology; the Very Rev. E. A. Pace, School of Philosophy; the Very Rev. John D. Maguire, School of Letters; Daniel William Egan, School of Science; and the Very Rev. Thomas E. Shields, Teachers' College.

A large number of priests and sisters of various orders, the latter students at the Teachers' College, are among those who will receive degrees.

Call On Secretaries. Following luncheon at the Apostolic Mission House, the visiting chaplains rode downtown to call upon the Secretaries of War and the Navy. It was thought likely that the question of uniform might be discussed with Messrs. Garrison and Daniels, but the question of proportionate representation will not be brought up. That question was laid before these Cabinet officers some days ago by Father O'Hern.

Besides the chaplains named, the following are attending the convention, which will last two days more: The Revs. M. G. Doran, M. D. Doherty, S. L. Kunneke, P. O'Keefe, J. Langley, J. P. Arnold, all of the army, and W. H. I. Rainey, and E. D. Reynolds, of the navy.

Father Doherty gave a paper, the last one of the session today, on "The Sacrament of Baptism." He is stationed at Fort Sam Houston.

ALONZO T. MOSMAN IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Well-Known Official of Coast and Geodetic Survey Was in Service 57 Years.

The death of Alonzo Tyler Mosman removes one of the best known officials of the Coast and Geodetic Survey. He was a member of the department for fifty-seven years and recently chief of the chart division of the Survey. Death occurred yesterday. He was seventy-nine years old. He is survived by a wife, two sons, and two daughters.

Mr. Mosman was born at Stoughton, Mass., February 5, 1835. He was graduated at the Sheffield Scientific School, of Yale University with the degree of bachelor of philosophy in 1859, and an assistant January 1, 1860.

He was first employed on astronomical computations under Dr. B. A. Gould at Cambridge, Mass. He was sent to the Pacific coast in 1859, and in 1861 he was on duty in connection with the operations of the army and navy in the Southern States; in 1862 he was in charge of the triangulation of New York city and vicinity, and since the latter date he was in charge of the chart division of the Coast and Geodetic Survey office.

In 1865 and 1866 he was detailed for duty on the Mexican Boundary Commission. From 1868 to 1898 he was in charge of the triangulation of New York city and vicinity, and since the latter date he was in charge of the chart division of the Coast and Geodetic Survey office.

MRS. CLEMENCIA A. WEBBER

Funeral services for Mrs. Clemencia A. Webber, widow of the late Fred. Webber, will be held tomorrow at 1 o'clock, at the residence, 526 Third street northwest. The body will be taken to Louisville, Ky., for interment. Mrs. Webber was eighty-four years old, and had been a resident of the city for many years. Mr. Webber formerly was secretary of the general supreme council of the Scottish Rite Masons, Southern Jurisdiction. Mrs. Webber leaves three daughters, Miss Charlotte Webber, Mrs. Edwin Hess and Mrs. Ida Miller.

Woodmen Prepare For Fair at Camp

Woodmen of the World are preparing for the fair to be held June 16, 17 and 18 at the organization's camp at Cherrydale, Va. Walter Johnson, the National star pitcher, Manager Griffith, Joe Engel and Mike Martin, also of the Washington Baseball Club, are scheduled to act as judges of several sporting features.

GLASSES

For every member of the family who needs them! Glasses to suit the eyes—glasses to overcome the error of refraction, to make the vision normal once more—that's my aim—take advantage of this service. Glasses as low as $1.00—if your eyes do not require special lenses.

SAMUEL
Washington's Leading Eyesight Specialist.
1209 G St. N. W.

Woodmen Prepare For Fair at Camp

Woodmen of the World are preparing for the fair to be held June 16, 17 and 18 at the organization's camp at Cherrydale, Va. Walter Johnson, the National star pitcher, Manager Griffith, Joe Engel and Mike Martin, also of the Washington Baseball Club, are scheduled to act as judges of several sporting features.

GLASSES

For every member of the family who needs them! Glasses to suit the eyes—glasses to overcome the error of refraction, to make the vision normal once more—that's my aim—take advantage of this service. Glasses as low as $1.00—if your eyes do not require special lenses.

SAMUEL
Washington's Leading Eyesight Specialist.
1209 G St. N. W.

GLASSES

For every member of the family who needs them! Glasses to suit the eyes—glasses to overcome the error of refraction, to make the vision normal once more—that's my aim—take advantage of this service. Glasses as low as $1.00—if your eyes do not require special lenses.

SAMUEL
Washington's Leading Eyesight Specialist.
1209 G St. N. W.

GLASSES

For every member of the family who needs them! Glasses to suit the eyes—glasses to overcome the error of refraction, to make the vision normal once more—that's my aim—take advantage of this service. Glasses as low as $1.00—if your eyes do not require special lenses.

SAMUEL
Washington's Leading Eyesight Specialist.
1209 G St. N. W.

GLASSES

For every member of the family who needs them! Glasses to suit the eyes—glasses to overcome the error of refraction, to make the vision normal once more—that's my aim—take advantage of this service. Glasses as low as $1.00—if your eyes do not require special lenses.

SAMUEL
Washington's Leading Eyesight Specialist.
1209 G St. N. W.

GLASSES

For every member of the family who needs them! Glasses to suit the eyes—glasses to overcome the error of refraction, to make the vision normal once more—that's my aim—take advantage of this service. Glasses as low as $1.00—if your eyes do not require special lenses.

SAMUEL
Washington's Leading Eyesight Specialist.
1209 G St. N. W.

GLASSES

For every member of the family who needs them! Glasses to suit the eyes—glasses to overcome the error of refraction, to make the vision normal once more—that's my aim—take advantage of this service. Glasses as low as $1.00—if your eyes do not require special lenses.

SAMUEL
Washington's Leading Eyesight Specialist.
1209 G St. N. W.

READY TO START COAL MINE PROBE

First Sessions to Be Held Today at Charleston, W. Va., Says Message to Capital.

The Senate sergeant-at-arms office received word from Charleston today that arrangements had been completed there for the first session this afternoon of the Senatorial committee sent under the Kern resolution to investigate alleged suspension of constitutional rights in the Paint and Cabin Creek coal districts. The committee left here shortly before midnight and is expected at Charleston by noon. No definite list of witnesses has yet been drawn up, but there are several score miners and a number of operators and their employees here awaiting their turn on the witness stand.

The committee expects to remain in West Virginia for two weeks. It will make a number of trips into the mine sections to gain a first-hand knowledge of conditions and to see how the miners live.

Senators Borah and Kenyon, members of the committee, are particularly anxious to get all data touching upon living conditions of the miners which may have been forced by the low wages and long hours prevailing in the West Virginia fields.

They have in mind Federal legislation to protect the workers. "Mother" Jones' relied upon for detailed evidence, gained through her living with families of strikers evicted from their homes.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

READY TO START COAL MINE PROBE

First Sessions to Be Held Today at Charleston, W. Va., Says Message to Capital.

The Senate sergeant-at-arms office received word from Charleston today that arrangements had been completed there for the first session this afternoon of the Senatorial committee sent under the Kern resolution to investigate alleged suspension of constitutional rights in the Paint and Cabin Creek coal districts. The committee left here shortly before midnight and is expected at Charleston by noon. No definite list of witnesses has yet been drawn up, but there are several score miners and a number of operators and their employees here awaiting their turn on the witness stand.

The committee expects to remain in West Virginia for two weeks. It will make a number of trips into the mine sections to gain a first-hand knowledge of conditions and to see how the miners live.

Senators Borah and Kenyon, members of the committee, are particularly anxious to get all data touching upon living conditions of the miners which may have been forced by the low wages and long hours prevailing in the West Virginia fields.

They have in mind Federal legislation to protect the workers. "Mother" Jones' relied upon for detailed evidence, gained through her living with families of strikers evicted from their homes.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

Wilson Braves Mumps

President Wilson insisted on visiting Joseph P. Tumulty, Jr., while out on a walk yesterday, although warned that his little friend had mumps. The President declared that he had had the mumps and that he could not go to bed without saying "hello" to his Secretary's son.

THE GREATER
PALAIS ROYAL
A. LISNER Hours: 8:30 to 6 G STREET

$1.00 Folding
Others Up to $25.00

An "Ad" Criticised—But Verified

Read It Twice—Then See the Watches—Then Give Your Verdict

$3.98--Watches--$4.50

Women's Including Monogram Men's

The worth of these Watches? Judging by looks they are worth $40.00. Judging by wear—they are guaranteed for 10 years—are they not worth $40.00? Only gold-filled, of course, but are they not better than the real gold $25 watches, with thin cases that soon dent? Do they not look more like $40 than $25 gold watches? With your monogram, giving an individuality, will they be judged other than $40 watches? Only 100 to distribute—fifty for women at $3.98 and fifty for men at $4.50.

The above advertisement appeared in the announcement of the late Profit-sharing Sale. The jewelry store proprietors and the department store chiefs who sent their representatives here were generous enough to be very complimentary. It was only those who did not call or see the watches—who adversely criticised our "ad." This we know—that seventy-five (75) of the hundred (100) watches were distributed that Monday. This we also know—the remaining twenty-five (25) will be quickly appropriated now that the same complimentary prices are to be asked.

Here's a New "Ad"—Well Worth Reading

Quadruple-plated Silverware that can be and is guaranteed for 20 years of active service cannot be too little in price. It is only when the makers or the store would dispose of odd pieces that bargain prices are quoted, as now.

Rogers Famous Tea Spoons

6 for 39c Usual Price, 59c

The Dining Room Needs

Tables, $9.50 Chairs, $2.50 Buffets, $18 Cases, $11

Tables, $9.50 Chairs, $2.50 Buffets, $18 Cases, $11

Tables, $9.50 Chairs, $2.50 Buffets, $18 Cases, $11

Tables, $9.50 Chairs, $2.50 Buffets, $18 Cases, $11

Tables, $9.50 Chairs, $2.50 Buffets, $18 Cases, $11

Tables, $9.50 Chairs, $2.50 Buffets, $18 Cases, $11

Tables, $9.50 Chairs, $2.50 Buffets, $18 Cases, $11

Tables, $9.50 Chairs, $2.50 Buffets, $18 Cases, $11

Tables, $9.50 Chairs, $2.50 Buffets, $18 Cases, $11

Tables, $9.50 Chairs, $2.50 Buffets, $18 Cases, $1